7. What are the Webinar guidelines?

COURSE GUIDELINES FOR CLASSROOM WEBINAR/WEBCAST DELIVERY

Adopted by the Producer Licensing (EX) Working Group Apr. 27, 2014

- These guidelines are intended to apply to courses conducted and viewed in real time (live) in all locations and are not intended to apply when courses have been recorded and are viewed at a later time or to other online courses.
- Each student will be required to log in to the webinar using a distinct username, password and/or email. Students that view webinars in group settings which is two or more individuals should alternatively verify their participation in the form of sign-in and sign-out sheets submitted by a monitor with an attestation or verification code.
- The provider will verify the identity and license number, or National Producer Number (NPN), of all students.
- A provider representative, using computer-based attendance-monitoring technology, must monitor attendance throughout the course.
- The provider must have a process to determine when a participant is inactive or not fully participating, such as when the screen is minimized, or the participant does not answer the polling questions and/or verification codes.
- For webinars not given in a group setting, no less than two polling questions and/or attendance verification codes must be asked, with appropriate response provided, at unannounced intervals during each one-hour webinar session to determine participant attentiveness.
- The provider will maintain an electronic roster to include records for each participant's log-in/log-out times. If required by states chat history and polling responses should be captured as part of the electronic record.
- When a student is deemed inactive or not fully participating in the course by the course monitor of failure to enter appropriate polling question response or verification codes, continuing education (CE) credit is denied.
- All students and the instructor do not need to be in the same location.
- Students in all locations must be able to interact in real time with the instructor. Students should be able to submit questions or comments at any point during the webinar session.
- The course pace must be set by the instructor and does not allow for independent completion.
- Instruction time is considered the amount of time devoted to the actual course instruction and does not include breaks, lunch, dinner or introductions of speakers.
- One credit will be awarded for each 50 minutes of webinar/webcast instruction, and the minimum number of credits that will be awarded for webinar/webcast courses is one credit.
- The provider must have a procedure that informs each student in advance of course participation requirements and consequences for failing to actively participate in the course.
- A comprehensive final examination is not required.

8. Do CE/PL courses expire?

Yes. A course is required to renew at 2-year intervals. A course will expire the last day of the month of initial approval, 2 years later. For example, a course approved on 7/14/2023 would have a course renewal date of 7/31/2025. Courses are allowed to be renewed twice (for a total of 6 years active). Course renewals are available 60 days prior to renewal date. Vertafore will invoice you for a fee of $25.

9. Is there a renewal process to maintain my CE/PL Provider status in Georgia?

All approved providers must renew at www.sircon.com by October 1 each year to be eligible to conduct courses in the following year. Sircon will invoice you for a fee of $55.00 (Renewal fee $50.00, Processing fee $5.00).

10. How long does the CE/PL course/instructor review process take?

Once the application has been received by Pearson VUE, expect an approval/deficiency letter within 15 business days. Notification of the approval or disapproval of a course or instructor will be sent electronically.

11. Are there any special requirements for self-study or online/electronic courses?

In addition to the requirements outlined above, applications for self-study courses must include a certification report on the number of pages in any textbook—excluding glossaries, indexes, tables of contents, and appendices (a word count is acceptable)—and a copy of the final exam. A minimum of 10 questions for the first credit hour are required with an additional 5 questions required for each subsequent credit hour.

*Self-study/online courses will not be approved for more than 12 hours.

12. Who may serve as a proctor to supervise the final exam for a self-study, online, or correspondence course?

OCI applies the NAIC's standardized terms and definitions for guidance as to who may serve as a proctor. An approved proctor is an impartial, disinterested third party or currently licensed agent with no family or financial relationship to the student and is over the age of 18. The proctor must verify the student's identity and complete an affidavit supplied by the approved provider testifying that the agent received no outside assistance. Membership in a professional association/organization does not constitute a financial relationship. Providers are responsible for collecting and retaining completed affidavits.

* Remote/ Virtual Proctoring is not permitted. Self-study/online courses will not be approved for more than 12 hours.

13. Is Georgia a participant in the NAIC Continuing Education Reciprocity (CER) process?

Yes. The paper NAIC Uniform Continuing Education Reciprocity Course Filing Form can be found at https://content.naic.org/cmte\_d\_pltf\_cer.htm. Resident/home state providers do not submit NAIC CER forms when certifying courses in their home state.

Along with the NAIC Uniform Continuing Education Reciprocity Course Filing Form, the following documentation is required:

- (a) A copy of the Course Home State Approval Form.
- (b) If a classroom/seminar course, a detailed time outline.

No, Course Offering Notification is not required. Providers can submit Course Offering information at www.sircon.com if they choose.

15. Are providers required to maintain attendance records?

Education providers are required to retain continuing education original course application documents, course and reference materials, any changes made to the course during active status, course assessment results, and course completion rosters for a period of at least 24 months from the inactivation date of the course.

These records must be available for audit by the Division and/or the continuing education administrators.

16. Do providers need to file any records?

Yes. Providers are required to file attendance and rosters on www.sircon.com within 14 days of course completion to report credit. These records must be filed electronically via Sircon at <http://www.sircon.com/index.html>. There is no banking fee to report credit.

The provider is responsible for providing documentation of course completion to each producer who successfully completed the course within 7 days of the course completion or the competency examination is scored.

These requirements apply to all education providers. Failure to comply will result in immediate termination of course approval.

17. Are digital signatures accepted?

Digital signatures are approved as long as they have a time stamp on it such as a docusign signature. Typed or copy and pasted signatures are not acceptable. If the agent cannot complete with a digital signature, the agent can sign with a real signature.

18. How will I know the roster was submitted?

Providers who submit rosters via Sircon Compliance Express® will be sent an email notification if the submission was successful or if there is an error. There is no banking fee to report credit.

19. Are there any restrictions on advertising courses?

A course cannot be offered or advertised as approved until the course provider has received written notification of approval.
