INTRODUCTION

This handbook is for candidates who want to be licensed as Funeral Directors in Pennsylvania. It describes the steps you, the candidate, must follow to apply for and test. Please read this handbook in its entirety.

The Pennsylvania State Board of Funeral Directors has contracted with Pearson VUE to create, score, and report the results of the examinations you must take to become licensed. The contact information (including web services) for Pearson VUE are listed in the Quick Reference on the inside front cover of this handbook.

ELIGIBILITY AND APPLICATION PROCESS

RESIDENT INTERN APPLICATION PROCESS

To become licensed as a Funeral Director in Pennsylvania, you must first obtain your Funeral Resident Intern license. To do so, create an account in PALS at: <https://www.pals.pa.gov>, apply for a Funeral Resident Intern license, and pay the appropriate fee.

When applying for a Funeral Resident Intern license, candidates must provide the following documents:

- Child Abuse Recognition and Reporting
- Certificate of Mortuary Education
- Application for Preceptor
- Certificate of Preliminary Education
- Criminal History Documentation (if applicable)
 - must include typed explanation and certified documents

CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECK (MANDATORY)

Pennsylvania applicants must either provide or purchase a recent Criminal History Records Check (CHRC) from the Pennsylvania state police or another state agency from every state in which the applicant has lived or worked within the past five (5) years. The report(s) must be dated within 180 days of the date the application was submitted.

For new license applicants, who reside in Pennsylvania, a $22 cost will be added for your PA CHRC. This will be run by the Dept of State.

For applicants residing in California, Arizona, or Ohio: Due to the laws of these states, the Board is not an eligible recipient of CHRC's from California, Ohio, or Arizona. Please obtain your Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Identity History Summary Check at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-historysummary-checks>.

APPROVAL TO TEST NOTICE

When your required documents have been received and evaluated for completeness, you will receive an approval to test notice via email. The approval to test notice contains details about how to schedule your examination.

To begin, go to <http://pearsonvue.com/accommodations>, and then select your test program sponsor from the alphabetized list. Candidates who have additional questions concerning test accommodations may contact the ADA Coordinator by emailing accommodationspearsonvue@pearson.com.

EXAM DAY

Please arrive at the test center thirty (30) minutes before your scheduled appointment time. This will give you adequate time to complete the necessary sign-in procedures. Be prepared to show identification. If you arrive more than fifteen (15) minutes late for your appointment, you may be refused admission and exam fees may be forfeited.

No personal items may be taken into the testing room. This includes all bags, books not authorized by the sponsor, notes, phones, pagers, watches and wallets.

If you come to the test site without the proper ID, you will not be allowed to take the exam and you will lose your exam fee.

All exam questions, each form of the exam, and all other exam materials are copyrighted by and the property of Pearson VUE. Any distribution of the exam content or materials through any form of reproduction, or through oral or written communication, is strictly prohibited and punishable by law. The following policies are observed at each test center:

LATENESS

Arrive at the test center thirty (30) minutes before your scheduled examination starts. You are not permitted to eat, drink, or smoke during the examination.

GUESTS/VISITORS

Guests, visitors, pets, interpreters, or children are not allowed at the test centers.

THE EXAMS

The Funeral Director Written Practical examination will consist of 35 scored and 5 “pretest” multiple choice questions. The Funeral Director Jurisprudence examination will consist of 45 scored and 5 “pretest” multiple choice questions. (Pretest questions are questions on which information is being collected for use in making future exams. Your answers to pretest questions do not affect your score. Pretest questions are mixed in with the scored questions and are not identified.) You will have 60 minutes to complete each examination, which will begin after you've accepted the terms of the Non-Disclosure Agreement.

Each examination item will consist of a question and four answer options. If you do not know the answer, you may guess or move on to the next item. However, please note that unanswered questions will be marked as incorrect. If you want to review a specific question after completing the test, you can click on "Flag for Review" to mark the question. If you click on "Flag for Review," the flag will display in yellow. At the end of the test, you may have time to review questions that you marked. Questions flagged for review will appear with a blue flag in the Review Screen. You may then go back to the flagged questions and answer them or change your response.

Pearson VUE highly encourages all test takers to review the online tutorial at <http://www.pearson-vue.com/demo> before arriving to the test center. The tutorial will help familiarize yourself with the look, feel and navigation of a Pearson VUE computer-based test.

If you give help to someone or receive help from anyone during the exam, you may be asked to leave the room and the incident will be reported to the Board of Funeral Directors. Anyone who takes or tries to take materials or information from the testing room is subject to prosecution.

SCORE REPORTING

At the conclusion of the examination, preliminary exam results will be provided. Your official license will verify passage of the exams and confirm the preliminary reports.

To obtain your license, an Application for Licensure must be submitted via PALS at: <https://www.pals.pa.gov>.

Only those who have completed their one-year internship and 35 funeral case histories and passed both the Written Practical and Jurisprudence examinations are eligible to apply for a Funeral Director's license.

EQUATING AND SCALING

There are multiple versions of each of the licensing examinations. These versions are known as forms. Although all forms of an examination are developed based on the content outlines, the difficulty of the forms of an examination may vary slightly because different questions appear on each form. To ensure that no candidate is put at an unfair advantage or disadvantage due to the particular form of an examination that he or she is given, a statistical procedure known as equating is used to correct for differences in form difficulty.

For example, in an examination with two (2) forms, Form A and Form B, the state licensing agency determines that answering 30 questions correctly on Form A demonstrates the minimum amount of knowledge necessary to be licensed. It is further determined through the equating process that Form B contains slightly more difficult questions than Form A; therefore, answering 30 questions correctly on Form A would indicate the same level of knowledge as answering only 28 questions correctly on Form B. Under this set of circumstances, a score of 30 questions correct would be used as the passing score on Form A whereas a score of 28 questions correct would be used as the passing score on Form B.

A second statistical procedure known as scaling is used to derive the numerical score to report for each candidate. Scaling is used to place a raw score on a common reporting scale on which each scaled score represents a given level of knowledge regardless of the difficulty of the form on which the raw score was achieved.

To illustrate how scaling works, suppose that in the examination example used above, the state licensing agency decides to use a score of 500 as the passing score for reporting purposes. (Note that the score selected to be used as the reported passing score is not related to, and has no bearing on, the difficulty of the examination.) Based on the information provided above, a raw score of 30 on Form A would translate to a scaled score of 500; a raw score of 28 on Form B would also translate to a scaled score of 500 since a raw score of 30 on Form A represents the same level of knowledge as a raw score of 28 on Form B.

SCALED SCORE

The passing scores of the licensing examinations were set by the Pennsylvania State Board of Funeral Directors (in conjunction with Pearson VUE) after a comprehensive study was completed for each examination. Raw scores are converted into scaled scores that can range from 0 to 100. To avoid misuse of score information, numeric scores are only reported to failing candidates. The scaled score that is reported to you is neither the number of questions you answered correctly nor the percentage of questions you answered correctly. With a passing score of 75, any score below 75 indicates how close the candidate came to passing, rather than the actual number or percentage of questions the candidates answered correctly. Passing

After you have successfully passed the Examination (and have completed the required hours), the State Board will issue your license within 10-15 business days. If you have not received your license in the mail within ten (10) business days of passing the examination, please contact Pearson VUE at (877) 883-1370. If you have changed your address from the time you submitted your application, you must notify Pearson VUE prior to the printing of your license.

Note: If you have passed the exam under "Early Testing," the results will not be sent to the state until the final transcripts are received.

To verify whether or not a license has been issued, an applicant may search the State's web site using the following link: www.mylicensepa.pa.gov.

FAILING AND RETAKING AN EXAMINATION

If you fail the examination, your Score Report will provide you with information on how to re-take the examination. A new examination fee is required each time you re-take the examination.

To schedule a retake examination, use the web reservations on the Pearson VUE web site at <http://www.pearsonvue.com/pa/bpoa>. Reservations for reexamination cannot be made at the test center, and you must wait twenty-four (24) hours from your failed examination before making your reservation.
